Comic Relief

Many thanks for your kind support for Red Nose day this year. We all had a very relaxed day in our night attire, the children all had a Red Nose Day cake and we raised about £70 for charity. Fantastic!!

Scholastic Book Fair

Thank you again for your support of the Scholastic Book Fair. We made over £360, which means that we can buy more books for school.

Congratulations to the winners of the World Book Day competitions: Class 1: Ben Sidaway, Emma Williams and Michael Dicks for their lovely bookmarks. Class 2: Evie Stopforth, William Thomas and Caroline Milton for their delicious “Menus for the Iron Man”. Many thanks to those kind parents who ran the Book fair so successfully for us.

FOLS Line Dance Evening: 20th

March at 6.00pm

Don't forget!

Tickets are £5 for adults, £2.50 for children and that includes tuition and food.

Design & Technology Week &

Recycled fashion Show

There was such a buzz in school last week as the children designed and created their outfits for the “Recycled Fashion Show” to mark the end of this term’s learning theme: Waste & Recycling. The children are organising the event, promoting it and costing it. It has been decided that an evening Fashion Show would be a good idea, hence the extra date. The children have decided to sell tickets to cover the cost of materials from the Scrap Store. They may even raise a little extra to put towards our stage fund! A huge thank you to the parents who came in to help the children to assemble their ideas, especially to Sarah Kavanagh, who worked so hard at her sewing machine!

Parents Evenings

We look forward to seeing you all at one of our Parents’ Evenings on Monday 23rd or Wednesday 25th March. We do try very hard to stick to the schedule for these meetings, so we can only allow 10 mins per appointment. Please remember that you can ask for another meeting if this is not long enough. Mrs Hind is also available on both evenings.

Please could parents of Class 1 pupils only enter the classroom in the morning if they really need to speak to Miss Johnston? She needs this time to organise and prepare an exciting day of learning for all her pupils. Thank you.
